Utilities: It shall be the responsibility of the proposer and/or the purchaser/developer to determine whether the appropriate utilities are available to the site.

Storm Water Management: It shall be the responsibility of the proposer and/or the purchaser/developer to ascertain City regulations relative to storm water management issues for any proposed re-development of the buildings.

GENERAL TERMS & CONDITIONS

The property will be sold in an “as is” condition. It will be the responsibility of the proposer and/or purchaser/developer to determine the condition of the property for any proposed re-development.

Any re-development of the property must conform to all building requirements and/or ordinances as established by the applicable governmental entity including, but not limited to, the Chattanooga-Hamilton County Regional Planning Agency, City of Chattanooga, Air Pollution Control Bureau, and the Standard Building codes.

SELECTION PROCESS:

Representatives of the City of Chattanooga will review all written proposals and rank them based upon the Comparative Evaluation Criteria in order to select the best proposal for purchase and re-development of the property. Proposers may be asked to make oral presentations.

The City of Chattanooga reserves the right to withdraw the request for proposals or to reject any and all proposals for any reason. The City of Chattanooga does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, or national origin and are in compliance with the guidelines of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

It is expressly understood that the receipt of any response to the Request for Proposals does not commit the City of Chattanooga to the sale of the property and that any proposal must be accepted by action taken by the Chattanooga City Council.

Once a proposal has been determined to comply with this request for proposals, discussions may be commenced with proposers to ascertain the proposal most advantageous to the City of Chattanooga.

All proposals will be submitted at the proposer's own cost and expense. The City of Chattanooga will have no financial obligations relative to the submission of any proposal.

Information regarding competitive proposals will be confidential until all proposals have been evaluated. Proposals may be public at such time recommendations are made by the Chattanooga City Mayor to the Chattanooga City Council.
